A Prayer for Collaboration

O God, You enlighten us with your charity,
and enliven us with your grace;
You guide us by your wisdom and give us
hope for the future;
You call us each by name.
As parishioners of the Basilica of St. John the Baptist and St. Peter Church,
You have brought us
together for Holy Mass.
May our prayers and praises
be pleasing to You.
Transform us by Your mercy,
and make us one in Your love.
Help us to use the gifts You have given us to proclaim Your Gospel,
and to serve our neighbors,
so that one day we may share together
the good things You promise to those who love You.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

FIRST READING

Exodus 16:2-4, 12-15

A Reading from the Book of Exodus:

The whole Israelite community grumbled against Moses and Aaron. The Israelites said to them, "Would that we had died at the LORD's hand in the land of Egypt, as we sat by our fleshpots and ate our fill of bread! But you had to lead us into this desert to make the whole community die of famine!" Then the LORD said to Moses, "I will now rain down bread from heaven for you. Each day the people are to go out and gather their daily portion; thus will I test them, to see whether they follow my instructions or not. "I have heard the grumbling of the Israelites. Tell them: In the evening twilight you shall eat flesh, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread, so that you may know that I, the LORD, am your God." In the evening quail came up and covered the camp. In the morning a dew lay all about the camp, and when the dew evaporated, there on the surface of the desert were fine flakes like hoarfrost on the ground. On seeing it, the Israelites asked one another, "What is this?" for they did not know what it was. But Moses told them, "This is the bread that the LORD has given you to eat."

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 78

*The things we have heard and understood,
the things our fathers have told us,
we will tell to the next generation:
The glories of the Lord and his might,
and the marvelous deeds he has done. R*

*He commanded the clouds above,
and opened the gates of heaven.
He rained down manna to eat,
and gave them bread from heaven. R*

*Man ate the bread of angels.
He sent them abundance of food.
So he brought them to his holy land,
to the mountain his right hand had won. R*

SECOND READING

Ephesians 4:17, 20-24

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians:

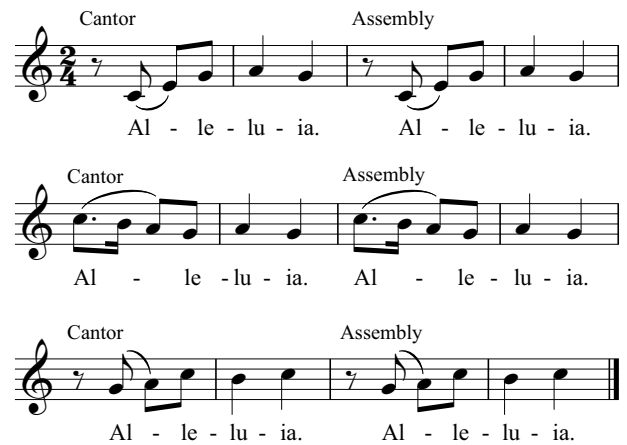

Brothers and sisters: I declare and testify in the Lord that you must no longer live as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds; that is not how you learned Christ, assuming that you have heard of him and were taught in him, as truth is in Jesus, that you should put away the old self of your former way of life, corrupted through deceitful desires, and be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and put on the new self, created in God's way in righteousness and holiness of truth.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Howard Hughes, SM

GOSPEL READING

John 6:1-15

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to John Glory to you, O Lord.

When the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they themselves got into boats and came to Capernaum looking for Jesus. And when they found him across the sea they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you get here?" Jesus answered them and said, "Amen, amen, I say to you, you are looking for me not because you saw signs but because you ate the loaves and were filled. Do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For on him the Father, God, has set his seal." So they said to him, "What can we do to accomplish the works of God?" Jesus answered and said to them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in the one he sent." So they said to him, "What sign can you do, that we may see and believe in you? What can you do? Our ancestors ate manna in the desert, as it is written: He gave them bread from heaven to eat." So Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave the bread from heaven; my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." So they said to him, "Sir, give us this bread always." Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(All bow at the following words up to: and became man.)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

There will be no daily Masses the week of August 3 - 6, 2022 as Father Sheridan will be away. Beginning August 10th, Daily Masses will be held at 8:30 AM every morning.

Hyde Amendment

Over the next few weeks, the House Appropriations Committee will be voting on several other appropriations bills, including the Labor/Health and Human Services bill that is expected to eliminate the Hyde Amendment. Without the Hyde Amendment and Hyde-related policies, billions of taxpayer dollars could be used to pay for abortion in the United States and throughout the world.

Don't let our government make you pay for the taking of innocent human life. Congress needs to hear from you: tell Congress to keep the Hyde Amendment and Hyde-related policies in the appropriations bills, and to oppose any bill that expands taxpayer funding of abortion. Stop your tax dollars from going to abortion.

From Father Sheridan

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

First of all, I wish to express my profound gratitude for the very quick and generous response to the appeal for the new sound system at Saint Peter Church. As I announced last weekend, in just two weeks, we surpassed our goal! I was deeply moved to see so many contributions made to this campaign by parishioners of the Basilica, as well as the great many made by parishioners at St. Peter. This was a clear sign to me that our collaboration is working. I am so glad to see that our efforts in this regard are beginning to bear fruit. Four years ago this weekend, I began as the rector of the Basilica, after a month as pastor of Saint Peter. At that time, I remarked that I saw our parishes as sisters, walking hand in hand, to accomplish together the work of the Church in Downtown Canton. Since then, I have been completely overwhelmed by the positive response you have shown by coming together and putting aside historical animosity and the hurts and pains that have accompanied that. Because of your efforts, we are now an example to other parishes throughout the diocese who are beginning new collaborative efforts. You are the reason for the success of our parishes, and I thank you!

There are two other projects which you might have noticed that have been taking place over the last few weeks. First, new lighting was installed in the sanctuary at the basilica, to replace bulbs that had been burned out for many years. I was amazed to see the brightness of the sanctuary last Sunday at Mass. It really makes the High Altar stand out against the back wall in a beau-

Prayer of St. Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

tiful way. I hope you noticed it as well. Secondly, we needed recently to replace the flagpole outside of St. Peter Church. About a year ago, just as discussions were beginning to take place about the need to replace it, I received a call asking about the McKinley Flagpole at St. Peter Church. I had never heard that the flagpole at St. Peter used to be on the property of the President McKinley Home, which was directly behind St. Peter Church. After confirming with some of our parishioners, we were able to determine that the eagle that rests on top of the flagpole is the only part that is from that historical flagpole. Therefore, we continued with the plan to replace the flagpole itself, and the eagle is being restored to be placed back on top. I look forward to seeing the McKinley Eagle returned in all its glory!

There will be no daily Masses this week, as I will be traveling with my family to Florida for a few days of vacation. I will be returning in time for the weekend Masses, so I will see you again next week!

Finally, our sympathies and prayers are with the family and friends of Mark Zeren of Saint Peter Church, who passed away recently. May the Lord, in His love and mercy, welcome him into his heavenly home, and may God provide comfort and consolation to those who are left to mourn his passing.

Have a blessed week!

Peace ~ Fr. Sheridan

Prayer for the Beatification of Rhoda Wise

Heavenly Father, the love of your crucified Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, sustained the Servant of God, Rhoda Wise, in her many sufferings and made her by grace a strong woman of faith. She led others to the Sacred Heart of Your Son, Jesus. She devoutly promoted daily recitation of the Most Holy Rosary. Prayers were answered. Faith was strengthened. May her Beatification come quickly as we ask for her intercession in this need. . . (pause and add your intention). We ask this through the Heart of Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen
